

Title: The medial presentation of sport in the national context

Abstract:

The work deals with the phenomenon of transformation of sporting event in the media. The theoretical part describes the phenomenon in Western culture style, focusing on a sporting event like the story. The practical part is a qualitative analysis of selected periodicals devoted to the “story” of Barbara Špotáková.

Key words: mass-media, medial presentation, sport