

Annotation – History of the parish in Červený Kostelec in the years 1918 – 1939

The work captures the events in the town of Červený Kostelec with special view to religious matters in the years 1918 – 1939. This period is divided into four or five year sections and describes minor and major events, which were recorder by chroniclers and historians. These events involve religious life, politics, city development, economy and social and cultural life. The main sources of information are: Kronika farnosti Červený Kostelec and Pamětní kniha města Červený Kostelec.

Key words: Roman-catholic church, the Czechoslovak church, the parish of Červený Kostelec, the First Republic period