

The aim of this work is to present a system of situational ethics and decision making concept known as Optio fundamentalists, put it in historical, philosophical and theological perspective, find out what their content applies beyond the framework, find in what way is possibly identical and try to connect them using the basic decision as the central criteria situational ethics.