

Co-ordination of national social security legislations, application in Czech Republic

THE RÉSUMÉ OF THIS WORK

REGULATION (EEC) No 1408/71 OF THE COUNCIL of 14 June 1971 on the application of social security schemes to employed persons and their families moving within the Community.

Co-ordination of national social security legislations is one of the most discussed theme, nowadays. We can see a long history of this very complicated problem. Very important part on this scene plays The Court of Justice of European Communities during its judgements. This opinions make a very important part of co-ordination at present.

Whereas the provisions for co-ordination of national social security legislations fall within the framework of freedom of movement for workers who are nationals of Member States and should, to this end, contribute towards the improvement of their standard of living and conditions of employment, by guaranteeing within the community firstly equality of treatment for all nationals of Member States under the various national legislations and secondly social security benefits for workers and their dependents regardless of their place of employment or of residence.

Persons covered: this Regulation shall apply to workers who are or have been subject to the legislation of one or more Member States and who are nationals of one of the Member States or who are stateless persons or refugees residing within the territory of one of the Member States, as also to the members of their families and their survivors.

This Regulation shall apply to all legislation concerning the following branches of social security: 1) sickness and maternity benefits

2) invalidity benefits

3) old-age benefits

4) survivor's benefits

5) benefits in respect of accidents at work and occupational diseases

6) death grants

7) unemployment benefits

8) family benefits

So, this Regulation is very important nowadays, and we can say, that its role to the future will be more and more necessary. But, nobody knows, what the future brings...
