The bachelor thesis the Church and homosexuality – Statements of selected czech churches to the homosexuality at the beginning of 21st centrury is about the statements of czech churches to the homosexuality and gay marriage in kontext of churches tradition, their sexuality statements, Bible interpretation, pastoral work and ethics. Within the scope of the thesis is described the comparison of these statements of different tradition churches – Rome Catholics, Evangelical Church of Czech Brethren ant The Brethren Evangelical Free Church. The thesis describes not only the official statements, but the answers of clergy and preachers too.