

The rigorous work devotes the information management which is concerned with agencies of public service. It gives a short historical view of public service. The work describes the main approaches and rules of general information management. It reflects the information support of management at agencies of public service and meets with the actual legislative framework of these questions. Special attention is focused on information management implementation on the municipal level, concretely on the town Krnov.