

The purpose of this diploma paper is to analyse last three symphonies of Miloslav Kabelac (1908-79) foremost from modal point of view (modality, composition based on modes, rapport between modality and tonality, non-octave modes). Attention is further paid to text elements of composition, to rapport between music and word, to symphonic form and other composition technique of Kabelac's mature works.