

Annotation

Bachelor's thesis discuss about adjudication quality of life before and after totally endo – prothesis of hip joint. The skript is includes into theoretical and empirical part. Theoretical part consisting from two parts. First part is quality of life and second part is direct to problems about totally endo – prothesis of hip joint. Empirical part is based on examination by the help of interview with patient, which was applied on orthopaedic – traumatology department and consequently on ortopaedics emergency in Regional hospital Kolín, a.s. Collated was quality of life before and after operation.