

Annotation

Assesment of longterm outcome of very low birth weight children in 6 years of age

Key words:

This work is interested in evaluation of the development of children with very low birth weight in six years of age.

The aim of the study is to explain probléme of premature rabies and to assess the out come this rabies in six years of age. This work evaluates childrem born in Perinatology center in Hradec Kralove in 1999 by questionnaire sent to patente and peditricians.

There are described potential complications for risk newborns in the theoretical part. The research part includes assesment of the childrens' life by parents and peditricians, influence of these rabies on their families and possibility of integration into healthy society.