

Annotation

Bachelor's thesis discuss about rehabilitation treatment of patients after cervical back operation with or without neurological deficit. The skript consist of theoretical and empirical part. Theoretical part explains rehabilitation treatment generally and specifically for patients after cervical back operation with or without neurological deficit. Empirical part is based on questionnaire survey, which was applied on selected ward of three prags hospitals. The subject of survey was knowledge and experience of nurses and physiotherapists in rehabilitation treatment of patients after cervical back operation.