

The goal of my work is creating graphics user environment for design web presentation with options for inserting php components. The final product will contain administration for control of single component through the web interface.