

The work checks of the project method in leisure activities. The theoretical part summarises the characteristics of after-school clubs and input data of the project. The practical part contains examples of realized projects and records the experience obtained from the projects implementation.