

This diploma thesis "Bund der Landwirte and Czechoslovak politics" is dealing with the German agrarian political party Bund der Landwirte (Farmers' League) in Czechoslovakia between 1918 and 1926 and further explores its relationship to the Czechoslovak national policy, especially in relation to education, language issues and land reform.