

This diploma paper resolves the question of pupils' evaluation and selfevaluation. It is focused on the use of the European Language Portfolio as a tool to develop evaluation skills with pupils. The theoretical part consists of definitions connected with these questions. The practical part provides a guide how to introduce and behave with the ELP.