

The aim of this thesis is to develop on the basis of theoretical knowledge the program of creative drama in the school center. The project aims to strengthen personal and social development of the child. Verify the individual is part of the project in practice.