

This text is intended for the general public, but particularly a narrow range of educational material for teachers and coaches of athletics in secondary schools, sports gymnasium, etc. The work includes chapters devoted to the history, description of cross-country disciplines and the general characteristics of athletic training. The research deals with the effect of athletic training on stayers within five weeks.