

This bachelory work touches possibilities of educator's influence in a social group with target on all sites support of the pupil in educational process. It describes possible sources and methods of the social group treatment . Work has been focused on the age level of elementary schoul pupils.