

Bachelor thesis „Attitude of Clinton and G. W. Bush administration to question of Palestinian state“ deals with the attitude of Clinton and G. W. Bush administration to problematic of constitution of Palestinian state in Near East. Thesis concentrates on key plans to Palestinian state since nineties of twenty century and American policy toward them. Mein subject is question of continuity of American policy toward these problematic and options, which this policy can give. We shouldn't leave out context of the problematic mainly connected with treaties from Oslo 1993, Wye river memorandum 1998, unsuccessful summit in Camp David 2000, Road map for Peace 2003 and finally last bigger attempt in Annapolis 2007.