

This bachelor thesis contains summarized information about basic theoretical factors - about factors that influence the children's creative expression and gives readers a brief overview of basic information about children's creative expression. The object of the practical part in this research is to identify and describe how will be influenced children's creative expression by the application of different styles of assignments- how will be changed children's artistic expression and observed phenomena in case of application of different styles of these assignments. The both results of these assignments should provide information about the importance of nursery teacher's professional competence in the field of artistic education.

Keywords

Pre-school children, creative expression, spontaneity, guided activity, deliberate development, factors of development, teacher's competence