

The bachelor thesis "Concordance Of School Educational Programme For Pre-School Education With The Requirements Of The Framework Educational Programme For Pre-School Education" deals with planning in kindergarten and formation of school educational programme. The theoretical part is concerned with planning from the perspective of theory of management and specificity of kindergarten planning. The empirical part examines the extend to which selected educational programmes in selected kindergartens fulfill the requirements of the Framework Educational Programme For Pre-School Education.