

Bachelor thesis „The anarchist ideals according to FSA/FAS“ talks about different approaches to anarchism in Czech context. It summarises the origin of the anarchist idea and attends to the evolution of anarchist groups in Czech lands from its constitution in the end of 19. century.

The most important part of this thesis is dissertating about anarchist group „Federace sociálních anarchistů/ Federace anarchistických skupin“ about its behaviour and view of society. This thesis defines what was the specificity of FSA/FAS in comparison with other Czech anarchist groups. It marks the ideal's root which conducted to the foundation of FSA/FAS and publication activity of that. The end of thesis estimates being of FSA/FAS and its legacy.