

The bachelor thesis deals with Central Library of Faculty of Education of Charles University in Prague. The first part of work focuses on history, organization and legislation of library. Next part describe the actual situation and position of this library, all about acquisition, collections, cataloging, indexing and furnishings of library. The practical part is about information and library services relate to employees and users of library (for example the personal evidence of bibliography employees or providing specific information about the environment and environmentalism). The last part is devoted to perspective of library, world developments in an academic libraries and librarianship. Practical part includes the interview with director of library and my presentation of possible innovation.