

"My master thesis, Du clos à l'ouvert. La question de l'homme dans Les deux sources de la morale et de la religion, speaks about the last book of Henri Bergson. This thesis wants to examine the human status in Bergson's philosophy. With the help of Bergson's dichotomies between "clos" and "ouvert", and an analysis of the bergsonian mystic, it is possible to understand the place and capacities of human in this philosophy of creation.
