

The topic „Equalizing muscles disbalance by swimming and water exercises for primary school children“ is extensive and it is necessary to concretize it. After the theoretical part I focused on the research on equalizing muscles disbalance by swimming. At my bachelor thesis I apply my five years experience in working like a sim teacher at two sim schools.

My thesis contains preparation, hypothesis and practical results in conformation with youth school age children category.