

An author's purpose is to solve theoretical problems of a primary and secondary schools pedagogical work.

The study is divided into parts in which questions of nowadays educational system are being analysed and concluded.

The final part is devoted to examples of pupils' works and a description of a Project teaching which would be based on the tradition as well as modern methods.