

The theme of the work is space. This is the author's research and thoughts about the themes public, private and personal space. Where are the borders between such spaces. Text focuses on the topics as public space in city, space of architecture, landscape and also traveling as a movement in a space. The education part deals with a space as an education topic for the lectures of Art. It also shows artistic suggestions from partially realized projects in Elementary School Na Chodovci and their reflection. The last part of the thesis describes a draft of author's own art works

Key words: space, public space, private space, personal space, city, architecture, landscape, moving, travels, art education, art.