

This diploma thesis with a theme „Circularity" discusses the process of self-fulfillment of human being, based on three existential movements. Circular (lived) and linear (reflexive) movements of human existence are in a dialectic relation and lead to a spiral movement of the human spirit. This idea is explicated in the practical and didactics part as a reflection of living which founds our self-reflection.