

In my dissertation I contrented to the magazine Home, wich appurtenant to the oldest magazines about living, life style and applied art in our country. This magazine arosed in 1960 and mustered in the redaction and between coworkers group of specialists and famous personalities from literature, architecture and art. The result was the magazine, what produced to readers practical information, interesting visits in interiors portraits of artists and designers and also lowly available information about news architecture and lifestyle in abroad.
