

Diploma thesis “The Issues of Growing Number of Homeless People in the Prague District :

1. deals with a definition of homelessness and causes of social exclusion of homeless people
2. analyses factors that influence homelessness
3. describes legal support and social services provided to this population group
4. deals with homelessness in the EU context, describes best practises from other EU countries
5. sketches in detail questionare research results within the target group of the thesis
6. analyses current status and solution approaches
7. draws areas and approaches that should be taken to tackle the homelessness problems