

The diploma thesis describes evolution of social democracy in 1920s in Kralupy region. This will be describes on the background of general events of social democracy party in Czechoslovakia. The thesis describes also local party elite and activities of some citizen of Kralupy nad Vltavou, discussion about social democracy program and reaction on local and national events.