

The object of investigation in this work is to analyze uťovky symbolism and its role in individual tanru spoken Lithuanian folklore. The symbol is pohlíteno as to the importance of perception uťovky, its position and role in oral folklore. Examined the Lithuanian fairy tales (mythical) reputation, proverbs and sayings, riddles, prayers to uťovce, incantations against snake bites and phraseologisms. We took examples from a number of available, folk sources. The analysis uťovky symbolism and its role in appointed tanru we focused on features uťovky in the Lithuanian pagan beliefs, mythologies of other nations and Christianity.