

This master's thesis focuses on studying the issue of the senior domestic violence in the Czech Republic as monitored by the civic association Život 90 through the calls to crisis-counselling phone line operated by this NGO. It is based on analysing the statistics of calls in 2003 and 2004 and case studies.