

Annotation

The increasing number of foreigners living in the Czech Republic causes the accrual of children from the foreign families in the educational institutions.

The teachers in Czech nursery schools face the situation when they have to adjust their work and help these children integrate with the community. The contents of this thesis are the possibilities that the Czech educational system offers to foreigners' children and the views of teachers of some nursery schools in Prague.

Keywords

Foreigners

Integration

Nursery School

Migration

Preschool Education

Teacher