

I - Vision, Icon (representation). The transformation of identity in relation to visual culture. Analysis of an influence of the contemporary media production to a subject, an individual.

Graduation Thesis is formed in two parts: theoretical and practical. These parts are not presented separate, because in practical part I tried to suggest and validate experimentally my own pedagogical project in conjunction with the theoretical part and it's content, where in the text those two parts support themselves.