

ANNOTATION

Lucie Kastnerová

Organ donation in Czech Republic, awareness and attitude to non-specialist and medical specialist

The bachelor thesis deals with organ donation in Czech republic, elucidates legislation and standard rules of organ taking and brain death confirmation. It also deals with history of trasplantology, its progress and up-to-date trends and knowledge.

Empirical part investigates awareness of non-specialist and medical specialist and their opinion and point of view of organ donation and human transplantation.