

In this diploma thesis I purvey to you overview of information about attending to the dying people. I deal with problems about custody of seriously diseased patients in their terminal stage of their illness, I define theme like old age and death, sense of family and I hold forth on problems of euthanasia. This all together is insight into genitive custody, which come true in practice in hospice movement. I discuss and describe the about hospice movement as well. This diploma theme also includes current view of hospice in the Czech Republic. All themes in my diploma are demonstrates with religious belief dimension and I attempt to judge it with Christian view.