

Thesis History of Baptist Churches situated in Liptov deals with development of baptism in the area of Liptov. Main goal is to identify general lines of development of baptism in baptist churches situated in Liptov from the time before 1st world war to the present time in areas of important persons, organisation, mission development and recognizable theological emphasis. After all provides theological reflection of elements of church life as: pastoral care, missionary activities, form of church services, ecumenical attitude and development of confession.