

The thesis „Josef Müller – Hope of The Reformkatholicism“ deals with the significant person of the German Catholic modernism Josef Müller. The paper contains a detailed glance on the person of Müller, his life and work as well. Other chapters analyzes historical context of the period in which Muller lived. Especially, there are examined the history of German-speaking countries. There are also investigated the history of the modernist movement in Germany and the history of religions in a second half of the 19th century in details. Consideration has been also given to modernist journal activities.