

The graduation thesis „Human being in the labyrinth of values: Questioning the possibilities and limits of fulfilling the sense of life in nowadays world“ is dealing with philosophical anthropology, philosophy of education, ethics and philosophy of culture.

The thesis consists of a theoretical and a practical part. The theoretical part identifies philosophical premises, analyzes the problem of the crisis of a modern man in the world of globalization, the crisis of values, possible ways of searching for the meaning of human existence or establishment of conditions for a dialogue.

The practical-empirical part uses a philosophical reflection to the application in the field of education for values. This part among others considers also the aspect of the integration of ethical education in schools and possible ways out of young people's problems of values.