

ANNOTATION

This thesis „Educational and occupational perspective of adolescents and adult people with disabilities“ outlines the educational system for the people with disabilities, their employment and work placement options. Characteristics of the Waldorf Elementary and High school points out specialities and attitudes of the Waldorf's pedagogy and anthroposophic view towards the people with disabilities with the aim to present its implication on the possibilities of the people with disabilities on the following education and work placement.

The outcome of the questionnaire placed in Waldorf elementary and high school reflects the assertion of graduates after leaving the school, interviews with teachers of practical training and the head of the workshop Jinan. The aim of this thesis is to emphasize the importance of education and work placement for the people with disabilities, necessary in order to cultivate and enrich their lives.