

Summary

The theme of this thesis is based on daily encounters with the problems, opinions and helplessness students of secondary school (age 12-16) how to spend and enjoy free time in the same centre and not yet created a situation in which an individual learns to achieve pleasure and satisfaction of delinquent behavior.

The aim was to define and describe the basic concepts related to the sociopathological phenomena, frequently observed species and ways of prevention. Purpose of my work is to find answers to the questions: What are the possibilities of the school and local community in the prevention of delinquent behavior of children and adolescents? What are their activities? Whether are children and young people about opinions at all informed? Who has the greatest influence on behavior and actions of young people?
