

On the following pages we are dealt with, " first and last" in the Gospel of Luke. Although it is a concrete definition of the topic, we will perceive a little more broadly than it seems at first glance. The theme of the first and the last is very closely related to the general theme of promotion and humiliation, namely promotion of humiliated and humiliation of promoted.