

Mediální obraz vstupu vojsk Varšavské smlouvy do Československa ve vybraných italských denících

Media portrayal of Warsaw pact invasion to Czechoslovakia in selected Italian newspapers

Bc. Sabina Růžičková

Abstract

The diploma work “Media portrayal of Warsaw pact invasion to Czechoslovakia in selected Italian newspapers” brings closer look at this historical phenomena from the view of several Italian newspapers. The task was to analyze journals published on the Apennine Peninsula and their reporting about this invasion regarding their political profile. The examined units were the form, the content and size of reports.

In the beginning of my thesis, I was trying to provide a closer look at the situation in Czechoslovakia in 1968, the process of becoming more liberal and free, which was violently interrupted in August 1968 by the Warsaw troops.

In the end of my diploma, I used a comparative historical analysis to see how the particular Italian media informed its readers about the situation and how much they different in the point of view at the situation