

Summary

This essay focuses on analysis of 1 Sam 15 by narratological method. After introducing the results of previous historical-critical investigation regarding this text and introduction to theory of narratology and its literary approach, it deals with identification and description of narratological structures and building blocks of 1 Sam 15 – with delimitation of narrative, description of plot, characters, focalization, and literary style of this narrative.

Keywords

Old testament narrative – narrative analysis – plot – character – 1st book of Samuel – king Saul