

Resumé

The thesis is concerned with the phenomenon of (ethnonational) diasporas in international affairs. It presents case studies on the Armenian diaspora in France, in the US and the effects of the diaspora on Armenia. The case studies are used instrumentally to verify the theory of transnationalism.