Presentation of dissertation by Klimešová.

Opponent Sjöstedt: Question of recursive nature in case studies explored;
Question of can there be another analytical approach;
Question of difference between tactics and strategy;
Question of what can governments do that NGOs cannot and vice versa.
Assessment: "This is a great work" as a work, as a theoretical design, only a few redundancies of information/theories provided but not used.

Opponent Bureš: General assessment: very important theoretically and policy implications, fills a gap in Czech scholarship

Three Concerns:

Independent variable: primary and regular independent variables used, perhaps too many variables, and not explained how they are linked.

Dependent variable: should have been developed more

Conflict resolution versus conflict management: more description

Inclusion of more discussion of other theoretical approaches not used

Klimesova reacted to all questions and points of concern.

Karasek opens floor for discussion.

Results of the defense: all members of the commission agreed to grant the title of PhD in the field of International Relations to Martina Klimešová.

Výsledek obhajoby: Členové komise všemi hlasy vyjádřili souhlas s udělením titulu Ph.D. PhDr. Martině Klimešové.
