

Summary

The diploma thesis deals with Music education and culture and with the significant personalities in Brandýs nad Labem – Stará Boleslav. It maps the continuity between the past and the present through scanning bibliographic sources and interviews with nine significant personalities. Actual needs of Music education in the present and future such as the direction of music culture in the local region result from the findings in the practical part of the diploma thesis.