

The first part of the thesis aims to provide basic background information for teachers prior to teaching FAE. The second part provides reflections on practical classroom teaching. The thesis also broaches the problems and possibilities which occur when working with with the film medium in the classroom.