

The aim of this magisterial work is to map the development of of Czechoslovak diplomacy between the yars 1945 -1950 in the context of post – war political events. It wans to contextualize the continuity and discontiunity of Czechoslovak foreing policy before and after the Second Word War. This work also tries to record the changes of Czechoslovak foreing policy by describing the stuff cuts in the year 1948 when the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia came into power.