

This thesis offers overview of philosophical and aesthetic work of famous Mexican philosopher, aesthetician, writer, lawyer, and politician José Vasconcelos. The first part presents his life facts, historical and political context of his thought and the second part focuses on outlining his metaphysical, epistemological and aesthetic system which is called aesthetic monism.